4. Causes of Sickness.

MEASLES

An epidemic of Measles commenced in the early part of December 1922 and continued until the end of March 1923, necessitating the closing of the Infant's Department of the St. John's and Boothferry Road Schools. The incidence of the disease was confined mainly to the Central and West Wards and the type of disease was mild. Three deaths from Measles were registered.

DIPHTHERIA.

There were 41 cases of Diphtheria notified with four deaths. 39 of the cases were removed to Hospital.

MUMPS

This disease became epidemic at the end of the year and was confined to the South Ward where it was prevalent mainly amongst the children in attendance at the St. Thomas' School, Infant's Department which was closed for two weeks before the Christmas holidays.

SCARLET FEVER.

There were 64 cases of Scarlet fever notified with no death. 57 were removed to hospital. The type of disease was mild—a considerable number were desquamating when notified, and others were discovered whilst enquiries were being made for contact cases.

ENCEPHALITIS LETHARGICA. (Sleepy Sickness)

One patient was notified and recovery took place. The diagnosis was confirmed on consultation. No history of infection could be obtained. This is the second notification of the disease in Goole.

CEREBRO-SPINAL MENINGITIS.

One patient was notified suffering from Cerebro - Spinal Meningitis. The patient was a married woman aged 28 years who lived in good sanitary surroundings. The history obtained was that she had given birth to a child 13 weeks previously and had resumed her usual household duties, when she was suddenly seized with an indefinite illness which proved fatal in four days. Her husband had been a soldier but never suffered from the disease nor had been in contact with it. There was no further illness amongst the members of the household.

ENTERIC FEVER.

There were notified three cases of Enteric fever with one death. The diagnosis was a doubtful one in each instance.

OPHTHALMIA OF THE NEWLY BORN.

Three patients were notified and two recovered with vision impaired. Strong representation was made to the Bartholomew Hospital Authority to receive these cases for treatment but the committee of the hospital definitely refused permission. Arrangements have been made however, with the Isolation Hospital Authority to admit cases for treatment.

DIARRHOEA

Summer Diarrhoea was made notifiable during the third quarter of the year and only one notification of the disease was received. The patient recovered.

TUBERCULOSIS.

I reported that during the year 1922 there had been an increase of cases of Tuberculosis, and for the year 1923 there has been a still further increase. This increase has been amongst school children mainly and is causing anxiety. I have discussed the matter with the local Tuberculosis Officer and we came to the following conclusions.

(1) That there has been an increase of nearly 100% during the past two years of cases of the disease.

(2) That this increase is mainly amongst school children.

(3) Dr. Leitch gave it as his opinion that the type of disease was more virulent in Goole than the type he had to deal with in the neighbouring town of Doncaster where he is the Medical Officer of another Dispensary.

(4) That the cause is mainly due to a lowered resistance of Goole inhabitants caused by poverty and overcrowding.

(5) That about one third of the of the cases were infectious.

As in the preceeding year the increased number of notifications was between 5 years and 15 years of age (31 out of 67).

On page 9 will be seen an analysis of the notifications and the deaths for the year under review arranged according to age periods, and the following table summarizes the position since the year 1912 when the compulsory notification of pulmonary consumption began (and all forms since February 1913).

Year	Notifications of Pulmonary Tuberculosis.		Notifications of Non-pulmonary Tuberculosis.		Death Rate.
1912	...	34	...	0	1.6
1913	...	24	...	19	1.4
1914	...	27	...	16	.9
1915	...	37	...	25	.7
1916	...	25	...	10	2
1917	...	17	...	13	2.1
1918	...	26	...	13	1.8
1919	...	32	...	11	.9
1920	...	40	...	5	1.4
1921	...	32	...	5	1.3
1922	...	62	...	14	1.6
1923	...	67	...	19	1.1

The above table illustrates the favourable aspect of the question i.e. that the death rate is a declining one in spite of the fact that more cases are brought to our notice.

The deaths numbered 18 (8 males and 10 females) from pulmonary tuberculosis equal to a death rate from this form of the disease of .9 per thousand and 5 (2 males and 3 females) from the non-pulmonary forms. The whole death rate from the diseases caused by tubercle was 1.1 per 1,000 (10 males and 13 females). Contrary to the usual experience there were a large number under 15 years of age i.e. 10 out of 23 deaths.

Infantile Mortality.

The total number of deaths under one year of age was 46 equal to a death rate of 89·8 per 1,000 births registered.

Last year there were 52 deaths and a death rate of 103·3 per 1,000.

The legitimate death rate was 86·4 per 1,000, and the illegitimate death rate 154 per 1,000.

The decreased number of deaths during the year were under the headings of Premature Birth and Respiratory Diseases mainly, with an increased number under Congenital Debility which I have reason to believe indicates a specific taint.
